I May Be Only Dreaming

People say
Love would be wonderful
If it were possible
But I May Be Only Dreaming
People say I'm the one
Who'll come to pay
When the dancing is done
I know that's just the way love goes
But who knows what's in my heart
For you seem to be the one
To make my dream come true
It's you
The moment that I looked Into your eyes, I knew
That when I awake
You will be here
And if I'm only dreaming
Then the world will disappear
People say
Love's nothing magical
But I'm not cynical
Even if I'm only dreaming
People say many things
But they can't say
What the morning will bring
I know I may be dreaming still
But you will be in my heart
Though I May Be Only Dreaming
You're in my heart

Someday Song

Someday is just a word
Who knows?
We may take that long vacation
To Paris, France, or the Riviera
Or some other dream-filled destination
Someday, Someday
Yesterday, I guess you've heard
Someone that we knew quite well was taken
So suddenly, no one saw it coming
It made me feel my little world was shaken
His Someday has gone away
When I feel inspired
I try to read between the lines
Through the half-open blinds
To the darkened corners of my mind
And the voice I hear inside
Tells me to live while there's still time
I can only hold this moment
'til it fades away
And I can't live my life
For Someday
Someday, I'll find my way
God knows, I have tried to understand it
I've fallen down; maybe I've been careless
Nothing's ever gone the way I planned it
But Someday, I won't have to say
Someday / Someday
Someday / Someday
(Spoken): Is here.

It Must Be Madness

This always happens
I fall into the depths of your eyes
Flames rise from embers of desire
Life dissolves into passion and lies
All I remember is the fire
You tell me I'm much too crazy for you
But your touch is the one thing I crave
That can save me
My heart is broken
Before you've ever spoken my name
And yet I want you all the same
Kisses can't cure me
I'm not sure that this fever can break
Still I know nothing else will do
It Must Be Madness
I give more than you ever will take
Still I am no one without you
You tell me I'm much too crazy for you
That can save me
It Must Be Madness
As long as there is pleasure and pain
This magic madness will remain

To Better Days

I guess you could say I've seen better days
Those long-ago red-letter days
Have all gone and slipped away from me
It's a natural progression
From lost love to depression
I will look for the bottom of these highball glasses
Until this old obsession passes, and I'm free
And I say, Cheers, here's to my peers
Fallen comrades, fallen tears
Here's to a lighter load, the bend in the road
That leads us to the way
Out of the maze, out of the haze
Here's To Better Days
To Better Days, To Better Days
And nobody knows
Where burned-out passion goes
When the bloom is off the rose
Love just goes and slips away from me
I would tell you a story of my youthful glory
But all I've got tonight is the memory of Certain dark incidents
And my loss of innocence
And I say, Cheers, here's to my peers
That leads us to the way
Out of the maze, out of the haze
To Better Days, To Better Days
And until Fortune smiles, we'll chalk up the miles
Until she stays, we'll just play it as it lays

The Difference

There's nobody else who sees
The things I see in you
No one else can understand my dreams
The way you do
When other lovers leave
Each other's arms for something new
I hope you'll see
That the difference in your life is me
'Cause I know it's true
That the difference in my life is you
If tomorrow brings a different scene
From what you've known
You can ride a while with me
Before you face the road alone
And you'll be free to fly
Or free to fall down on your own
But I hope you'll see
That the difference in your life is me
'Cause I know it's true
That the difference in my life is you
If you divide the difference between
My insistence and your resistance
You may see me in the distance
With a smile on my face
But if you choose a different path
And drift away the aftermath
Is my paper castle's sad collapse in space
'Cause I know it's true
That the difference in my life is you

Nothing But Fun

I don't do mornings
I don't awaken with the sun
It isn't easy being the one
Who has Nothing But Fun
I don't do windows
I never look out at the view
Not since I looked at it with you
I watched the sun rise
From deep in your eyes
And we had Nothing But Fun
Now, when all the laughter is done
Whatever comes after has begun
Breakfast at midnight
Silence and coffee for one
I don't do heartache
I just don't play it all that well
One look and everyone can tell
I'm just pretending
My hopes are ending
I've seen my future
It's just as rosy as the dawn
I didn't really know 'til you were gone
I wasn't your someone
I was Nothing But Fun
And we had Nothing But Fun
Now, when all the laughter is done
Whatever comes after has begun

Wasn't love something?
But there was nothing there for me
Nothing is easy, nothing's free
And what have we done
When love was Nothing But Fun?

Caught in the Act

We should come to some understanding
You and I should make a pact
The ways of love are so demanding
And you've caught me in the act
Yes it's a crazy contradiction
Feels so wrong and yet so right
It makes me question my convictions
And lie awake all night
And when I get that strange sensation
I must be near enough to you
It isn't my imagination, baby
I guess it really must be true
It's a fact, I'm Caught in the Act
There's no turning back
'Cause I'm Caught in the Act
It wasn't really my decision
To take you deep into my heart
I've just been drawn into the vision
And I have to play my part
Yes it's a crazy contradiction
Feels so wrong and yet so right
It makes me question my convictions
And lie awake all night
And when I get that strange sensation
I must be near enough to you
I guess it really must be true
It's a fact, I'm Caught in the Act

Sheila, I'll Try

They say that there is a kind of wisdom
In silence and solitary thought
I've had a lifetime of reflection upon
Trying to be someone I'm not
You've taken pieces of my puzzle
And put them into someone else's hand
And it's something I will never understand
And Sheila, I'll Try to forgive you
Though I don't think I can
You said we're not victims of circumstance
It must be part of a plan
And Sheila, I'll Try to forget you
Though I don't think I will
We were two strangers in a circle dance
Now the music is still
There is a stranger in my mirror
Who looks so lonely, uncertain and worn
For in my lifetime, you were the only one
Who made me feel like I'd just been born

And Sheila, I'll Try to forgive you
Though I don't think I can
You said we're not victims of circumstance
And Sheila, I'll Try to forget you
Though I don't think I will
We were two strangers in a circle dance
Now the music is still
And Sheila, if I ever forgive you
For teaching me both passion and pain
Still I will never forget you
As long as your part of me remains

When We're This Far Gone

Won't you stop thinking of me
As a friend of a friend?
You know my whole story
From beginning to end
I've tried to be cool
But I don't want to pretend
I know what I've gotta do
And it's not the blue horizon
That I've got my eyes on
You're my special someone
What's one more kiss
When we're already this far gone?
When we're this far gone?
When we're this far gone?
And I've been feeling so low
The tide's above my chin
Don't count me out
Just let me come back in
Don't keep me waiting for my life to begin
You know what I'm going through
Cause it's not the blue horizon
That I've got my eyes on
You're my special someone
What's one more kiss
When we're already this far gone?
When we're this far gone?
When we're this far gone?

My Dream is You

Is this or isn't it sin
That we are living in?
Face to face and skin to skin
Silent kisses on your chin
And I dream we're lying on a beach
And I dream we're flying out of reach
And it seems
There is nothing we could not do
If I cling to you
My dream is true
My Dream is You
My Dream... is You

Is that a smile I see?
Blue eyes are watching me
In the dawn we both pretend
That this night will never end

And I dream we're lying on a beach
And it seems
There is nothing we could not do
If I cling to you
My dream is true
My Dream is You
My Dream... is You

The Only One Laughing

She could only be free
Dancing in darkness
Away from the light
And we held in our hands
A bottle of magic
Two fireflies in the night
And I was the Only One Laughing
Laughing out loud
And I was the only one running
Away from the crowd
And I knew that nothing was funny
But I couldn't help myself
I was talking to you, but I was alone
The lights in the windows were on
But no one, no one was home

I felt my heart was on fire
I was lost in the smoke
There was nothing to see
No face in the mirror
You never spoke
But I knew that the joke was on me
And I was the Only One Laughing
Laughing out loud
And I was the only one running
Away from the crowd
And I knew that nothing was funny
But I couldn't help myself
I was talking to you, but I was alone
The lights in the windows were on

There's no one to talk to now
No one believes me
She never existed, they claim
She's only a dream
Conjured in fever
You can't even tell us her name
And I was the Only One Laughing
Laughing out loud
And I was the only one running
Away from the crowd
And I knew that nothing was funny
But I couldn't help myself
I was talking to you, but I was alone
The lights in the windows were on
But no one, no one was home
No one was home
I was The Only One Laughing

Unbroken Love

In the stream
As the currents of this dream
Flow like water
As the mountain turns to sand
Does it matter?
If I held you in my hand
Would you shatter?
In the day
As the hours slip away
Does it matter?
Every minute we're apart
Makes me sadder
Makes the edges of my heart
Frayed and tattered
Is it real?
Or could I be imagining the way I feel?
Is there something for me there
To be wary of?
Barely spoken of
Unbroken Love
Have you seen?
As the gears of this machine
Keep on turning
Through the darkness of the dream
Sparks are burning
I don't know what love will mean
but I'm learning
Is it true?
Is there something to believe?
Don't deceive me
I may never hear you say
You won't leave me
If you love me for today
I'm not sorry
Is it real?
Or could I be imagining the way I feel?
To be wary of?
Barely spoken of
Unbroken Love

While We Still Have Light

Time gets away from everyone
We've only moments in the sun
But you and I have time enough for love
While we still have daylight
We can bask in the sun
I'm only asking for one little favor
Let's taste all the flavors and have some fun

While we still have moonlight
We've got time to dance
This romance feels just right for us
We'll hum a chorus or two of "Claire de Lune"
You'll see the love in my eyes
While We Still Have Light
While We Still Have Light
While We Still Have Light

Time flies away, until it's gone
We've only started this road we're on
But you and I - will find the time to love
While we still have starlight
We can wish and dream and sigh
And if you tell me it's all right, I will Stay by you until the night is through
You'll see the love in my eyes
While We Still Have Light
While We Still Have Light
While We Still Have Light

Alive Again

Alive Again
After all this time
I'm feeling Alive Again
Cause when you're near
The air is clear
And skies are bright and blue
Alive Again
Now I've opened my eyes
You're looking too good to be true
But you can count me in
Cause I'm Alive Again
And life is shiny and new
Those sappy songs of love
Were just wasted on me
For in my youth
I tasted the fruit of that tree
And found the sour part
Where my heart used to be
New romance
Had no chance
And then we danced
And now, someone beautiful
Thinks that I am
Wonderful too
Alive Again
I'm feeling Alive Again
Because I'm falling
In love with you
